

CURRICULUM VITAE

ROBERT JAY ROWEN, M.D.

DOB: 11/17/49

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- 1967-1971 John Hopkins University; Baltimore, Maryland
BA Degree, Phi Beta Kappa
- 1971-1975 University of California; San Francisco School of Medicine; M.D. Degree

TRAINING

- 1975- 1976 Rotating Internship Highland Central General Hospital;
Oakland, California
- 1977-1979 Family Practice Residency; University of Arizona;
Tucson, Arizona

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 1976-1977 General Medical Officer; Gallop Indian Medical Center;
Gallop, New Mexico
- 1979-1983 Staff Family Physician and Staff Emergency Room
Physician; Alaska Native Medical Center, Anchorage
Alaska
- 1983-present Private Practice. Preventive medicine including, but not limited to, nutrition, acupuncture, diet,
life -style, intravenous nutrition, electrical therapy, chelation therapy, etc. Emphasis placed on assisting the body to heal by providing what it lacks to function properly and avoiding or removing toxins that interfere with biological processes. Special emphasis on oxidative medicine.

CERTIFICATIONS

American Board of Family Practice – 1980; recertified – 1986, 1993, 2000
American Board of Emergency Medicine – November 1985, recertified - 1999
American Board of Chelation Therapy – November 1986; recertified - 1994
American Board of Oxidative Medicine – 1996
Fellow – American Academy of Family Physicians
Diplomate – American Academy of Pain Management

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

American College of Advancement in Medicine
American Academy of Environmental Medicine
International Association of Oxidative Medicine (elected president 3-01)

COMMISSIONS

Public Member, Alaska Natives Commission – June, 1992
Appointed to 4 year term on the Alaska State Medical Board by Governor
Hickel, July 1992

PUBLICATIONS

1. “Hypnotic Age Regression in the Treatment of a Self-Destructive Habit: Trichotillomania”, American Journal of Hypnosis, Jan 1979
2. “Alaska Legislative Miracle: Freedom of Choice”
Townsend Newsletter for Doctors, November, 1990
Health Freedom News, September, 1990
3. “Ultraviolet Blood Irradiation Therapy (Photo-Oxidation): The Cure that Time Forgot”, Int. J. Biosocial and Medical Research Vol. 14 (2), 115-132, 1996
4. Editor –In –Chief: Second Opinion, a monthly medical newsletter, July 2001 to present. Publisher: Soundview Publications, Atlanta Georgia

MOST NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENT

Engineered the introduction and passage of North America’s first statutory protection of unconventional medicine through the Alaska Sate Legislature, 1990

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

American Academy of Advancement in Medicine, San Diego, California, November, 1998. Topic – Biologic Determinants of Health/Disease

International Bio-Oxidative medicine Association, Dallas, Texas, March, 1995. Topic – Photo-Oxidation

International Association of Oxidative Medicine Workshop, Phoenix, Arizona, October, 1995. Keynote Speaker; topic - Photo-Oxidation and Ozone

Cancer Control Society, September, 1996. Keynote Speaker; topic – Photo-Oxidation

American Academy of Environmental Medicine, Boston, MA, October, 1996. Keynote Speaker; topic – Photo-Oxidation

American College of Advancement in Medicine, Palm Springs, CA, November, 1996. Keynote Speaker; topic – Photo-Oxidation

Great Lake College of Advancement in Medicine, Ashville, NC, February, 1997; topic – Photo-Oxidation

International Association of Oxidative Medicine, Anchorage, AK, May, 1997. Keynote Speaker; Topics – Photo-Oxidation; The Dental Connections to Systemic Disease; and Colon Health and Connections to Systemic Disease

International Association of Oxidative Medicine, 1995-2002. Faculty Speaker at semiannual workshops on oxidative medicine; topics – Ultraviolet Blood Irradiation Therapy; and Ozone Therapy

Orthomolecular Society Annual Meeting, San Francisco CA, February 2002, topic - Ultraviolet Blood Irradiation Therapy

Great Lakes College of Clinical Medicine, Pittsburgh, PA, September, 2000; Topic - Photo-oxidation

Sixteen years of radio medical talk show experience, 1985 – 2001

International Oxidation Medicine Association special workshop on Insulin Potentiation Therapy, Las Vegas, NV February, 2001, Oklahoma City, OK June 200, Dallas, TX April 2002

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Multiple seminars and training sessions on nutritional medicine, chelation therapy, oxidative medicine, neural therapy, prolotherapy, cancer management and chronic pain